

I've been an FA for 28 years. No matter what size aircraft you are flying the accomidations are still quite close and often very crowded. On a 6 hour flight across the country (at anytime of day) would be a nightmare if you had to listen to hundreds of personal conversations. And some of the conversations I've heard are not age appropriate. Please do not allow cellphone use on the aircarft. Thank you for your time.